Hon. Casie Walker is a lifelong resident of Burnet County. She has been married to her husband, Brett, since 2012. Brett is an Adult Probation Officer with the 33rd/424th Judicial Districts, where they enjoy working in the same line of work (and same courthouse). Together they have four children spanning from 11-22 years old - Emmerson (22), Texas Tech Nursing School Graduate 2024; Bennett (20), United States Marine currently serving overseas; Everleigh (14), 6th in her sophomore class at Burnet High School; Hayes (11), the one that keeps them immersed in ALL school and sports activities.

Casie started working in the district clerk's office at just 23 years of age and quickly grew to love the work involved. She served as deputy district clerk and then chief deputy before taking office in January 2011 - and will celebrate 20 years with Burnet County this September. In her time as clerk, she has been an integral part of several software conversions - including her most recent move from Tyler Jury to Enterprise Jury, building a jury system that benefits her constituents and her office.

When asked what this means to Casie, she states "I am humbled and honored to be nominated as Clerk of the Year! It is exciting to represent Region IV - and to be considered alongside many other deserving Clerks."
