Honorable Kelly Pinion has served the citizens of Lubbock County for a total of 31 years as a deputy clerk and as county clerk. Of those years, she has been the elected clerk for 19 years. She has been married for 44 years and has four dogs, five cats and chickens.

Kelly is a firm believer in giving back to her community. “I am involved in the community and strive to make my office the best possible,” says Kelly. Her office regularly collects and donates teddy bears for National Adoption Day. They also donate to the Children's Home of Lubbock during Christmas and they participate in United Way events every year.
