OPTIONAL-PROVIDE A BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF YOUR PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS FOR THIS AWARD.

Upon my retirement with Time Warner Cable of 25 years. I began my second career with our Maverick County Judge as an Administrative Assistant in 2012. I registered as candidate for District Clerk. I was blessed by Maverick County voters and was elected while taking office in 2015. As a newly elected public servant for this office, my mission was to improve the District Clerks office to be more efficient with all activities. In addition, to work more closely with our two District Judges and exceed expectation by our office. My goal before retirement is the implementation of a paperless office. While I had never envisioned my career as a government public servant, much less serving as District Clerk, it has been a fulfilling experience and an honor to not just be part of Region 8, but a representative of the CDCAT family.
